

NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20506

January 10, 1977

Mr. George Bush
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear George:

I wish to take this opportunity to express appreciation on behalf of the Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs for the truly outstanding services provided over the past several months by Ms.

STAT [redacted] During her assignment as a CIA employee on detail to the National Security Council Staff, her dedication to duty, highly self-motivated attitude and exceptional professionalism were indeed an irreplaceable asset to this operation.

STAT A most personable individual, [redacted] served well beyond the requirements of her job description. Always eager to support the needs of the staff, she unhesitatingly put in long hours when needed, quickly acclimated to the different procedures and language of the NSC environment, and always provided the best executive assistance.

STAT [redacted] exemplary service is indeed a credit to the professionalism of the CIA.

Sincerely,

STAT [redacted]

Director for Intelligence Coordination
